

APPLICATION GUIDELINES

1. Selection

The supported projects funded by PERSPEKTIVE are selected by an independent committee of experts.

Committee of experts

- Eike Becker, architect, Berlin
- Jacques Ferrier, architect and urban planner, Paris
- Arthur de Ganay, architect and collector, Collection Arthur de Ganay, Berlin
- Hélène Guenin, director of Musée d'Art Moderne et d'Art Contemporain (MAMAC), Nice
- Christina Landbrecht, program director art, Schering Foundation, Berlin
- Jean-Hubert Martin, independent curator, Paris

1.1. Selection criteria

- 1.1.1. PERSPEKTIVE's funding is aimed at temporary projects that promote exchange and dialogue between France and Germany: debates, cooperations, performances, exhibitions, idea and research labs, workshops, conferences, festivals, and symposiums.
- 1.1.2. The invited participants are specialists in the fields of art or architecture. The funding is specifically aimed at French (or French-based) participants in Germany or German (or German-based) participants in France.
- 1.1.3. The projects must be supported by a German or French institution (museum, Kunstverein, art centre, architecture centre, project space, artist-run space, architect's office, and gallery). Projects from individuals as well as projects by or including students from (art) schools are not eligible for funding.
- 1.1.4. PERSPEKTIVE funds a maximum of 30% of the total project budget.

2. Assistance

2.1. PERSPEKTIVE can assist with the following costs:

- Travel costs for German (or German-based) participants to France or for French (or French-based) participants to Germany,
- Remuneration fees and accommodation expenses of the German (or German-based) participants in France or of the French (or French-based) participants in Germany,
- Communication costs (public relations, graphic design, advertisement, printing, translation),
- Publication costs,
- Technical costs relating to the event.

PERSPEKTIVE does not assist with the production costs for artworks.

2.2. PERSPEKTIVE funds a maximum of 30% of the total project budget.
